The Edward Everett Dale Society
Invitation to Membership

The Edward Everett Dale Society supports the mission and programs of the Western History Collections at the University of Oklahoma Libraries. We seek to enhance the Western History Collections, and promote understanding and appreciation for the history of the great American West. Join us today!

__ Member: $100  __ Student: $25

__ Please accept my gift of $ ____________ to support the programs of the Western History Collections.

Name:__________________________________________________
Address:________________________________________________
City:_________________________State:_____  Zip:__________
Telephone/E-mail:_____________________________________

The Prairie Schooner
[Stanza I]

When I see a prairie Schooner
With the tongue a-pointing west
What a mighty nameless longing
Always swells and fills my breast.
For it’s headed toward a country
I shall always love the best
Toward a land of stars and sunshine
Toward the prairies of the West.

---Edward Everett Dale
The Prairie Schooner and Other Poems