

How to Personalize Your My Library Page

1. Go to libraries.ou.edu and login with your OU 4x4 and password.

2. Click on the "My Library" link.

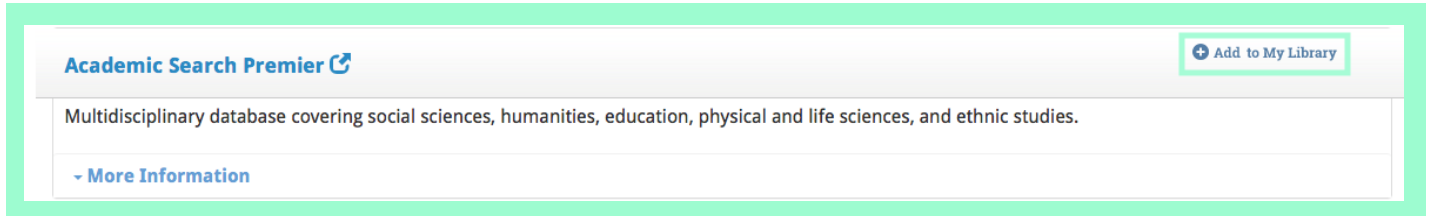

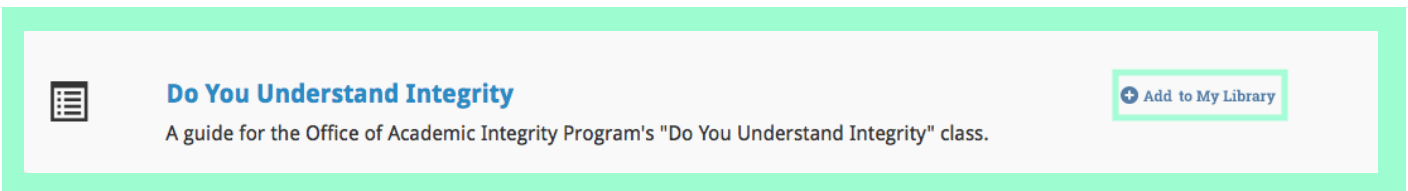

3. Click on the "Databases & E-Reference" link or the "Research Guides" link.

How to Personalize Your My Library Page

4. Find the database or research guide you want to save to your My Library page, and then click on the “Add to My Library” link.

 A screenshot of a database card for "Academic Search Premier". The card has a light gray background and is framed with a green border. At the top left, the title "Academic Search Premier" is followed by a small external link icon. At the top right, there is a blue button with a plus sign and the text "Add to My Library". Below the title, a short description reads: "Multidisciplinary database covering social sciences, humanities, education, physical and life sciences, and ethnic studies." At the bottom left, there is a link that says "- More Information".

 A screenshot of a research guide card for "Do You Understand Integrity". The card has a light gray background and is framed with a green border. On the left side, there is a small icon of a document with lines. To the right of the icon, the title "Do You Understand Integrity" is displayed in blue. Below the title, a short description reads: "A guide for the Office of Academic Integrity Program's 'Do You Understand Integrity' class." At the top right, there is a blue button with a plus sign and the text "Add to My Library".

5. Scroll to the top of the page, and click on the “My Library” link again.

 A screenshot of the library homepage navigation area, framed with a green border. On the left, the word "DISCOVER!" is written in large, bold, red letters. Below it is a search input field with a magnifying glass icon to its right. Underneath the search field, the text "Discover Local (Catalog) | Advanced Search" is displayed in blue. On the right side, there is a vertical column of three buttons: a blue "Logout" button at the top, a blue "My Library" button in the middle (highlighted with a green border), and a blue "My Library" button at the bottom.

6. If you want the resources you just saved to appear on the homepage after you login, then select the star icon.

 A screenshot of the "MY LIBRARY" page, framed with a green border. At the top, there is a black header with the text "MY LIBRARY" in white. Below the header, a small instruction reads: "★ = Add 5 resources to the homepage by selecting the star icon. View the My Library Demo video to get started." The page is divided into two main sections. The first section is titled "DATABASES & E-REFERENCE" in blue. It contains a list of resources, with the first one being "Academic Search Premier". To the left of this resource is a green star icon, and to its right is a "Remove" button. Below this list, there is a link that says "* add more Databases & E-Reference Materials". The second section is titled "RESEARCH GUIDES" in blue. It contains a list of resources, with the first one being "Do You Understand Integrity". To the left of this resource is a green star icon, and to its right is a "Remove" button. Below this list, there is a link that says "* add more Research Guides".

How to Personalize Your My Library Page

7. Scroll to the top of the page, and click on the OU Libraries logo to take you back to the homepage.

8. You should see the resources listed under the My Library section.

Questions?

If you have further questions, you can email me or schedule a research consultation appointment with me on my profile box located on the Research Tab.

