

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Joseph Quincy Adams Collection

Adams, Joseph Quincy. Papers, 1654–1918. .10 foot.

Professor. A commonplace book (1654) by James Gough with typescript; inventories (1870–1918) of the rare book collections of Henry Stevens of Barnet, Vermont, and Joseph Quincy Adams; personal correspondence (1882–1911) of E. J. Doggett, of Bristol, England, regarding rare book collecting; and an inventory (n.d.) of rare books at the University of Oklahoma Libraries.

Item:

1. A commonplace book compiled by James Gough, 1654. It includes poems and epigrams, some concerning Ben Jonson.
2. A photocopy of James Gough's commonplace book.
3. Two transcripts of James Gough's commonplace book.
4. Correspondence between Edward Arleer and E. J. Doggett, 1882-1911.
5. Two notebooks containing a handwritten inventory of Joseph Q. Adams's library, 1918.
6. Typed catalog of the library of Henry Stevens of Barnet, Vermont, in preparation for selling the library at auction in 1870. The list is accompanied by a lengthy explanatory note signed "H.S."
7. A handwritten list of books, titled "Drama Treasure Room," presumably from the University of Oklahoma Libraries' early rare books collection.
8. An untitled list of mailing addresses for various authors; and a magazine clipping of an unidentified facsimile Dante manuscript.