Oil field worker. Personal correspondence (1945–1950); war ration books, bills, and receipts (1944–1948); Catholic Church programs (1951); road maps and travel guides; farmers’ handbooks (1947–1951); and telephone directories (1928–1950) from Oklahoma and Texas towns.

Folder
1. One edition of Theater News advertising the release of the movie Uncle Tom’s Cabin (no date); an edition of The Baptist Standard 62, No. 11 (March 16, 1950). Headline is “Training Union Convention Meets April 6-7-8.”

2. Correspondence - one letter from the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, re: cotton crop insurance (March 26, 1945); one letter from Pegues-Hurst Motor Company, re: availability of a new car for purchase (March 22, 1949); government forms for fuel rationing, authorization to buy a new car, return of property lent to the government for the war effort and an application for automobile registration (c. 1946); Sunday bulletin from St. Mary’s Catholic Church, Ft. Worth, TX (August 26, 1951).

4. Order catalogs from various businesses (c. 1950s).

5. A commencement program from Our Lady of Victory Academy, Ft. Worth, TX (1949); editions of various newspapers - Oklahoma City Times (May 12, 1917); Our Sunday Visitor (October 5, 1952); The Texas Catholic (October 4, 1952); Longview (TX) Daily News (October 13, 1946); Fort Worth Star - Telegram (September 14, 1952); Bulletin (March 5, 1950).

Miscellaneous pamphlets:
- Braniff International Airways
- Central Airlines
- Braniff tours to Havana, Cuba
- “A New Horizon for Women in the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force”
- Chevrolet 1949 Almanac
- Official 1949 Big State League Baseball Schedule
- Rules of Selected Intramural Sports, University of Oklahoma
- War Ration Book
- Report Covering the Wage Movement of 1943
- B. F. Goodrich’s Farmer’s Handbook and Almanac (1947-49, 1951)
- What is Worth More Than Your Health
- Prayers and church bulletins
- Music to “Beautiful Dreamer” by Stephen Foster
- Continental Trailways Time Table
- Portion of a Baltimore Catechism
- Numerous road maps