Bandy, David H. (Mrs.). Artifacts, 1870–1911. .25 foot. Collector. Artifacts collected by relatives of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, resident Mrs. David H. Bandy, during their travels and military service. Items include an opium box and a small clock obtained from Tien-Tsin, China, during the Boxer rebellion, which were given to Mrs. Bandy’s brother, Harry M. Lunsett, during his service in the U.S. Army during the Spanish-American War; and Canadian and Mexican coins collected by her husband, David H. Bandy. An obsidian arrowhead, a piece of coral, and newspaper clippings about World War II are also part of this collection.

Folder:
1. Seven Canadian coins, dated 1880-1911.
2. Newspaper clippings regarding World War II.
3. Handwritten notes about the artifacts in the Mrs. David H. Bandy Collection.
4. An obsidian arrowhead.

Opium box taken from an opera house in Tien-Tsin, China during the Boxer Rebellion of 1899-1900 by a mounted orderly in the 14th infantry U.S.A. This item was given to Mrs. Bandy’s brother during his military service in Manila, Philippines during the Spanish-American War.

5. Watch (miniature clock) taken from a public school in Tien-Tsin, China during the Boxer Rebellion of 1899-1900 by a mounted orderly in the 14th Infantry, U.S.A. This item was given to Mrs. Bandy’s brother during his military service in Manila, Philippines during the Spanish-American War.

Oversized Location: 08304
One piece of ocean coral from the Miami, Florida area.

See also: Coins, Tokens, and Money Collection for a $20 note issued by the Confederate States of America.