

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Norman W. Brillhart Collection

Brillhart, Norman W. Printed materials, 1960–1974. .33 foot.

Collector. Newspaper clippings on forts, battles, monuments, and trails (1960–1974), with an emphasis on George Armstrong Custer. Three items describe the 1965 dedication of the restored Fort Washita, Oklahoma.

Item:

1. Brochure for Oklahoma Historical Society Annual Tour, which commemorated the close of the Civil War in Oklahoma (1965).
2. Program for the dedication of Fort Washita (June 22, 1965).
3. Brochure for Fort Washita, project of the Oklahoma Historical Society. Within the brochure are clippings from various newspapers about Fort Washita and its dedication (1965).
4. Clipping from The Daily Oklahoman entitled "World's Largest Statue, Monument to Crazy Horse, Is Lifetime Job" (April 3, 1964).
5. Clipping from the Sheridan (Wyoming) Press entitled "Kirby Ranch Was Site of Early Fight" (September 13, 1965).
6. Clipping from The Daily Ardmoreite (Ardmore, OK) entitled "Butterfield Overland Mail Aided Settlement" (August 9, 1965).
7. Clipping from an unidentified newspaper asking the question "Is it true that a man is trying to carve an Indian out of a mountain?". The answer follows immediately (no date).
8. Clippings from various newspapers about "Custer's Last Stand" (aka The Battle of Little Big Horn) (1962-1974).
9. Clipping from The Sunday Oklahoman with 2 articles about Fort Washita, entitled "Aunt Jane Ghost Legend Revived at Fort Washita" and "Washita Battle Recalled" (September 13, 1964).
10. Clipping from the Oklahoma City Times entitled "Confederacy Ended Century Ago at Historic Fort Towson" (July 23, 1965).
11. Clipping from an unidentified newspaper entitled "Ceremonies Mark End of Centennial" of the Civil War (no date).

12. Clipping from The Dallas Morning News entitled "La Bahia: Texas' Gibraltar Regains Glory" (July 11, 1965).
13. Clipping from The Sunday Oklahoman entitled "Outlaw Gangs Triumphed In Shootout at Ingalls" (July 25, 1965).
14. Clipping from The Dallas Morning News entitled "Medicine Wheel: Ancient Mystery" (April 17, 1960).