

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Horace Bristol Collection

Bristol, Horace Papers, 1937-2014. 0.10 foot.

Photographer. Bristol worked as a photographer for Life and documented migrant farmers in California while accompanying John Steinbeck through California to create his "Grapes of Wrath" photo series. Bristol also photographed scenes of Africa and East Asia during the 1940s. This collection features background information about the photographer, some of his work in the magazines Life and Camera Craft. His work was displayed in an exhibit at the Fred Jones Museum of Art from 2013 to 2014.

Box	File	Title	Date
B-35	1	"On Assignment: The Photojournalism of Horace Bristol," Fred Jones Museum Exhibit	November 16, 2013 - May 18, 2014
B-35	2	"Depression-era Regionalism in Western American Art, Photography, and Film," Charles M. Russell Center, Eight Biennial Symposium	March 28, 2014 ,
B-35	3	Horace Bristol articles	ca. 2014
B-35	4	Camera Craft	January, 1937
B-35	5	Life magazines featuring photography from Horace Bristol	1939-1940
Film and Video	# 732	The Compassionate Eye, Horace Bristol: Photojournalist, by David Rabinovitch and Moving Images Production Group [VHS]	1999