

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Samuel H. Brown Collection

Brown, Samuel H. Printed materials, 1958. .10 foot.

American Indian chief. Newspaper articles regarding the death of Yuchi chief Sam W. Brown, and the return of the Yuchi Tribe to its ancestral lands in the Chattahoochee Valley, Alabama.

Item:

1. "Program of the Celebration of the Return of the Yuchi Tribe of Indians to the Chattahoochee Valley, June 7 and 8, 1958".
2. "Yuchis Plan Trek to Georgia for Tribal Museum Opening", from an unidentified Tulsa-area newspaper.
3. "Georgia Fete to Draw 100 State Yuchis" from an unidentified Tulsa newspaper, regarding the dedication of a museum honoring their tribal culture. See above article also, for more details.
4. "Yuchis' Tribal Council Fire to Burn Again" from an unidentified newspaper. This article is about the re-lighting of the Yuchi Indian council fire where it was extinguished more than 125 (in 1958) years ago. Land was also to be returned to the tribe at this time.
5. "Euchee Tribe Leader Dies" from the Tulsa Daily World, January 1, 1958. An obituary for the late chief, Sam W. Brown.
6. "New Yuchi Indian Chieftain visits City for Making Test" from the Columbus Enquirer, Columbus, Georgia, April 18, 1958. Chief Samuel H. Brown visited Columbus to see if the people of the area really wanted the center of Yuchi culture returned to the Chattahoochee Valley.
7. "Apology", from an unidentified newspaper. This is only a portion of an article. This portion focuses on what was to be done with tribal historical documents and artifacts after the death of Chief Sam W. Brown.