

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

W. H. Brown Collection

Brown, W. H. Manuscript, 1933–1969. 1 item.

Judge. A typescript (ca. 1969) by Brown chronicling the invention of the parking meter in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Brown's role in its development.

Description:

"Notes Relating to the Invention of the Parking Meter: The Difficult Questions of Law Resulting Therefrom, and Their Solution" by Judge Brown. Judge Brown was the General Counsel of the Dual Parking Meter Company owned by Mr. Carl C. Magee, who originated the idea of the parking meter. Two professors, H.G. Theussen and Gerald A. Hale actually designed the machine. December 16, 1969.