Camp Supply Collection

Camp Supply Collection. Letterbook, 1869–1878. 1 item.

Military post. A letterbook (1869–1878) containing copies of letters sent; lists of names of Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians; data relating to their provisioning and outfitting; and reports on hostile bands kept by the commissary supply officer at Camp Supply, Indian Territory, which was established in 1868 as a base for operations against the plains Indian tribes.
