

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

James Manford Carselowey Collection

Carseloway, James Manford. Papers, 1859–1937. 3 items.

Historian. A manuscript (1883) containing instructions to the Cherokee National Council's Washington, D.C., delegation, as approved by D. W. Bushyhead, principal chief; a typescript concerning a flowing oil well brought in during 1859 in the Cherokee Nation; and correspondence (1937) describing the history of Grand River Dam in Oklahoma.

Box 1

Folder:

1. Transcripts:
 - "Cherokee Nation had First Flowing Oil Well in 1859 -- May be First Flowing Oil Well in United States"
 - "History of Grand River Dam"
 - "An Act Instructing the Delegation to Washington, DC" (2 copies)

2. Handwritten copy of "An Act Instructing the Delegation to Washington, DC", signed by Dennis W. Bushyhead.