Redmond Selecman Cole Collection

Cole, Redmond S. (1881–1959). Papers, 1894–1956. 38 feet.

Judge. Correspondence (1894–1947) regarding the personal affairs of Cole, politics and government at both the state and local levels, and legal cases before the Oklahoma court system; legal briefs (1909–1925) of Oklahoma cases; publications (1908–1956) regarding politics and government at the local, state, and national levels; and speeches (n.d.) delivered by Cole before civic, fraternal, and other groups.

Biography:

R.S. Cole was born August 22, 1881 in Andrew County, Missouri. He was educated at Kirksville, Missouri, State Normal School and attended Missouri State University where he studied law. Cole moved to Pawnee, OK, April 26, 1909 and set up a private practice. He married Mary Cross from Missouri on June 11, 1910, and had two girls Oliva and Virginia; born 1911 and 1919, respectively. Cole was elected County Attorney of Pawnee, 1910-15. In 1917, he was elected Mayor of Pawnee, but resigned to take the position of the Assistant U.S. District Attorney for the Western District of Okla., 1917-18. Elected District Judge of the 21st Judicial District of Okla., 1918. Re-elected 1922. He resigned on May 1, 1923 to take the position of lawyer for the Gypsy/Gulf Oil Company in Tulsa, OK. Retired from the company on June 1, 1951. Cole was a member and First Vice-President of the Oklahoma State Historical Society and he actively gathered his family history (Selecman) throughout his life of which a compilation was accepted at the Library of Congress in 1943. R.S. Cole's collection consists of personal, legal and political correspondence. Documents and news clippings about legal proceedings in which he was involved, and part of his personal law library are included.
