

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

L. E. Crawford Collection

Crawford, L. E. Papers, 1885–ca. 1949. .10 foot.

Author. Manuscripts (n.d.) of articles dealing with cattle branding and cowboy life and work, and lists of cattle brands used in western Oklahoma, the Texas panhandle, and western Kansas.

Box 1

Folder

1. A prepared manuscript on brands, giving pictures of the brands, and the background history as to the ranch and the people involved with the ranch. Each page of the manuscript includes a drawing by Choc Wilkes.
2. "Somewhere," a poem by Malcolm Parker, Jr. about Soapsuds, Will Rogers' horse.
3. "Life on the Frontier," as told by Amos Chapman to L.E. Crawford.
4. "Southwest Cattlemen and Brands of Long Ago."
5. "How the Cowboy Amused Himself."
6. "Scott Cooley of the BC Bar Outfit."
7. "When Law and Order Came to Tascosa."
8. "Memories of Will Rogers as a Texas Panhandle Cowpuncher."
9. An article on branding and ear-cropping for cattle and horses.

All manuscripts by L.E. Crawford unless otherwise noted.