

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Arthur H. DeRosier Collection

DeRosier, Arthur H. Papers, 1789–1903. .10 foot.

Collector. Photocopies of correspondence (1789–1842) between William and Diana Dunbar regarding the American Revolution, New Orleans, Louisiana, and the Napoleonic wars in Europe, along with correspondence (1901–1903) between the U.S. Department of the Interior and its surveyor, Charles L. Wood, regarding townsite locations and surveys in Indian Territory.

Folder:

1. Photocopies of correspondence between William and Diana Dunbar (1789-1798) regarding their plantation and business affairs, including slaves, crops, real estate, financial concerns, and general news. These copies are likely of materials held by the Mississippi Department of Archives and History. Permission to publish from these copies should be sought from the MDAH.
2. Photocopied fragments of letters and undated letters. See above.

Addition to DeRosier (Arthur) Collection, July 24, 1967:

3. Correspondence Between Charles L. Wood and the Department of the Interior Concerning townsite locations & surveys in Indian Territory, February-December, 1901.
4. Correspondence between Charles L. Wood and the Department of the Interior concerning townsite locations & surveys in Indian Territory, March-December, 1902.
5. Letter to Charles L. Wood from United States Indian Inspector for Indian Territory concerning townsite of Alderson, dated Jan. 12, 1903.
6. Miscellaneous material on townsite surveys.