

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Mrs. C. D. Ellison Collection

Ellison, (Mrs.) C. D. Papers, 1834–1956. 4 items.

Collector. A pamphlet (n.d.) entitled "Darlington, the Indian's Friend," which chronicles the life of the Cheyenne-Arapaho Indian agent and Quaker missionary, Brinton Darlington; a speech (1945) by Edgar S. Vaught, giving a brief history of Oklahoma; and a diary (1891–1893) kept by Caro Emerson while a student at Bethany College, Lindsborg, Kansas.

Item:

1. Typescript of "What Every Oklahoman Should Know", an address by Edgar S. Vaught to the Daughters of the American Revolution (November 14, 1945).
2. "Darlington, The Indian's friend", a pamphlet about the life of Brinton Darlington, reprinted from a pamphlet printed by William Sessions in 1873. Darlington was Quaker Indian Agent working with the Cheyenne and Arapaho tribes.
3. Letter from Ebenezer Kingsley to Mr. Hinley re: the pamphlet on Darlington (November 5, 1956).
4. Diary kept by Caro Emerson while a student at the College of the Sisters of Bethany in Topeka, Kansas (1891-1893).