

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

James Franklin Findlay Collection

Findlay, James Franklin. Papers, 1934–1938. .10 foot.

Collector. Records (1934–1938) chronicling the origin, organization, and function of the Independent Men's Association of the University of Oklahoma, including typescripts (n.d.) regarding the history of the organization and a mailing list (n.d.) of persons to whom its publications were mailed, along with publications (1934–1938), including the local chapter newsletter The Roundup, and a program from the first national conference of the Independent Student's Association, held at the University of Oklahoma.