Box contains 3" x 5" cards utilized by Gould in compiling the index for Oklahoma Place Names.

Box 8: Covered Wagon Geologist - Manuscripts and Miscellaneous

Red Wallet

1. Covered Wagon Geologist - typewritten manuscript with corrections.
2. Covered Wagon Geologist - photostatic copy of typewritten manuscript.
3. "A Happy Life," (Covered Wagon Geologist) - typewritten manuscript with corrections, November 27, 1931. The subject matter of this manuscript is the same as that in Covered Wagon Geologist, but the organization of the material differs slightly. "A Happy Life" may have served as a preliminary draft of Covered Wagon Geologist.

Folder

1. Covered Wagon Geologist - typewritten manuscript, 1948.
2. "The Lone Cabin on Possum Flats" - typewritten manuscripts with corrections, two copies. These pages are a part of the larger manuscript, Covered Wagon Geologist; however, the story was originally published in Sturm's Oklahoma Magazine, IX, No. 2 (October, 1909), pp. 76-79.
3. Folder 3 contains four short sketches included in Covered Wagon Geologist. These typewritten sketches probably appeared as short talks or lectures.
4. Introduction to Covered Wagon Geologist signed by B.W. Beebe, but actually written by Savoie Lottinville in order to provide a schematic guide for Mr. Beebe in composing his own account (February 1959). Mr. Beebe's version appears as the introduction to the published Covered Wagon Geologist.
5. One piece of correspondence from B. W. Beebe to the underwriters of Gould Memoirs regarding publication of the Gould autobiography (Covered Wagon Geologist) by the OU Press June 4, 1958. One mimeographed copy of the letter.
6. List of errors in galley proof of Covered Wagon Geologist as found by Don B. Gould, February 19, 1959. Two handwritten pages.

7. List of photography descriptions employed in Covered Wagon Geologist. Two handwritten pages.
8. A review of the autobiography of Charles Gould by Jerry B. Newby, based on the manuscript of Covered Wagon Geologist found in Red Wallet 1, January 13, 1957. One typewritten copy, six pages.
9. List of names and addresses. One typewritten and two carbon copies. The typewritten copy is incomplete and the carbon copies number 34 pages each. Dr. Gould designated the lists as pertaining to Covered Wagon Geologist; however, the relationship is not clear. It may be that the people on the list assisted him in writing Covered Wagon Geologist.

Note:

Geography of Oklahoma, (Ardmore, Oklahoma: Bunn Brothers, 1909), 178 pp., and Travels Through Oklahoma, (Oklahoma City: Harlow Publishing Corporation, 1935), 174 pp., also by Dr. Gould, are a part of the Charles N. Gould Collection, but have been transferred to the Library Division of the Western History Collections.
