Collectors. Correspondence (1876–1900) between members of the Helpenstein family, who settled in Oklahoma Territory in 1889; a scrapbook of newspaper articles (n.d.) concerning the history of Palo Pinto County, Texas; and a ledger (1907) belonging to L. E. Patterson.

Folder:
1. Personal correspondence, 1876 – 1897.
2. Map of the "Tomahawk Trail"; Footnote Special Edition announcing the addition of the Patty Patterson Grass Herbal Collection to the O.U. Health Sciences Center Library (c. 1970s).
4. Notebook with "clippings from Mineral Well, Texas about Palo Pinto Pioneers", and other miscellaneous newspaper clippings.
5. Private ledger of L.E. Patterson, 1905 - 1910.