Blake Gumprecht Papers and Photographs

Gumprecht, Blake. (1959-). Papers and photographs, 1976-2012. 19 cubic feet.

Geography professor. Research materials, photographs, newspaper clippings, photocopied articles, correspondence, and other papers (1976-2012) primarily related to the research and publication of Blake Gumprecht's book, The American College Town (University of Massachusetts Press, 2008), a study of the American college town's culture and history.

Biographical Note

Blake Gumprecht was born in 1959 and raised in Wilmington, Delaware, five miles from the University of Delaware campus in Newark. He holds degrees in journalism, library and information science, and geography. Gumprecht is the author of two books, The American College Town (2008) and The Los Angeles River: Its Life, Death and Possible Rebirth (1999). Both books won the J.B. Jackson Prize from the American Association of Geographers. He was a faculty member at the University of New Hampshire in the Department of Geography for 14 years and was department chair for six years. In 2017 he left academia and returned to work in journalism at the Las Cruces Sun-News in New Mexico.

Series

Series 1: College Town Research Materials, 1976-2012. Boxes 1-18, Oversize Folder 1.

This series contains Blake Gumprecht's research files on over 60 college towns, and his extensive research on the eight college towns featured in The American College Town (2008). These papers include correspondence, photocopies of articles, newspaper clippings, statistical research, and other materials relating to the research and publication of the book. The materials are arranged in the author's original order and are described with his original folder titles.

Series 2: College Town Photographs, undated. Boxes 18-19.

This series contains primarily copy prints of photographs and illustrations that were used by Blake Gumprecht in researching and writing The American College Town (2008). The materials include black-and-white and color prints, as well as negatives. The images depict students, buildings, and everyday scenes of life in selected college towns in the United States. The materials are in the author's original order.
