

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Jesse James Harold Hawes Collection

Hawes, Jesse James Harold, ca. 1930s, 0.15 feet.

Saddlemaker and leatherworker. Known for his skill in making detailed hand-tooled saddles and tack, Hawes worked in both Henryetta and Norman, Oklahoma during the early 1900s. In his spare time, he bound books in customized tooled leather and worked on a guide to leatherwork.

---

Note: See library collection for associated books

Box	File	Title	Date
Box H-13	1	James Hawes, Maker of Saddles catalog for saddles and associated tack	n.d.
Box H-13	2	Incomplete manuscript called "Leather Lore" by James Hawes	n.d.
Box H-13	3	Photographs including Jesse James Harold Hawes and a young man, a portrait of Bertha Meacham Hawes, his wife, and and older Jesse James Harold Hawes walking home from his leather shop in Norman, Oklahoma	n.d.
Box H-13	4	Christmas card from Florence and Lee Jaques, author of Canoe Country	n.d.