

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Richard D. Hazen Collection

Hazen, Richard D. Printed materials, 1949. .10 ft.

Student. A collection of newspaper clippings and a fire-damaged cigarette case saved by Richard D. Hazen from the 1949 BOQ (Bachelor Officers' Quarters) fire at the University of Oklahoma. Hazen was a survivor of the fire, and a 1951 graduate of the School of Petroleum Engineering.

Items:

1. A fire-damaged metal cigarette and lighter case from the 1949 BOQ fire.
2. "Going, Going, Gone!" newspaper clipping from The Daily Oklahoman, 1949.
3. "Local Youth Flees from College Fire," newspaper clipping from the Titusville (PA) Herald, 1949.
4. "Disaster Keeps Knocking on OU's Door," newspaper clipping from The Daily Oklahoman, 1949.
5. "Grim Evidence," newspaper clipping from an unidentified Oklahoma newspaper.
6. "Three Dead in BOQ Fire," front page of an extra edition of The Oklahoma Daily student newspaper, 1949.
7. "No Blame Is Found in University Fire," newspaper clipping from The New York Times, 1949.
8. "3 Perish in Dormitory Fire at University of Oklahoma," newspaper clipping from The New York Times, 1949.
9. "OU Dorm Blaze Victims Are Identified," front page from The Daily Oklahoman, 1949.
10. "Laughter Soothes OU Men," and "Fire Photos Click: OU Students Record Drama," newspaper clipping from The Daily Oklahoman, 1949.
11. "Wilkinson Named Coach of the Year," newspaper clipping from The New York Times, 1949.