

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

William F. Hixson Collection

Hixson, William F. Papers, 1939–1995. .33 foot.

Economist. Published and unpublished articles (1938–1988) by William F. Hixson on economic issues; and correspondence (1981–1994) of Hixson with Paul Sweezy, James Galbraith, Guy Routh, Milton Friedman, Sidney Lens, and Leon Keyserling.

Box H-69

Folder:

1. Published articles: "Marxism and Monetary Policy," in Economics et Societes, September, 1987; "'Poor Richard' on Money: Benjamin Franklin in Monetary Theory," in The History of Economics Society Bulletin, Winter, 1987; "A New Perspective on the Economic Crisis," in Eastern Economic Journal, July-September, 1983; excerpts from The Nation's Money Supply: Facts and Fiction in Economics Principles, Problems and Policies, 1987; "Seven Misconceptions in Economic Thought," in Economics et Societes, September, 1988; and "Keyne's Policies for Financing Recovery from the Great Depression and for Financing World War II" in Economics et Societes, September, 1986; "Power of Negative Thinking," in Progressive World, July-August, 1959
2. Unpublished articles: "The Role of Investment in Keynesianism," "Reflections of Keynesianism," "Some Necessary Conditions of Real Growth and Their Implications," and "Marxism and the Domestic Debt Crisis in the United States," 1983-1988
3. Book reviews, correspondence, etc. related to Hixson's A Matter of Interest and Triumph of the Bankers, 1986-1993; book reviews of Hixson's books, also book reviews by Hixson of Financial Crisis: Understanding the Postwar U.S. Experience by Martin Wolfson, and Beyond Our Means by Alfred Malabre
4. Correspondence--between Hixson and Paul Sweezy (editor of the Monthly Review), James K. Galbraith (executive director of the Joint Economic Committee of the US Congress), Guy Routh (author of the Origin of Economic Ideas), Milton Friedman (author and professor), Sidney Lens (author), Leon Keyserling (member of Truman's Council of Economic Advisers) and Paul T. Hellyer, 1981-1995
5. "Hixson's Corner," a column written by Hixson in Economic Reform, published monthly by the Committee on Monetary and Economic reform, Toronto, Canada, 1991-1996

6. "Matter of Interest, A," a weekly column written by Hixson for the Greensburg Record Herald newspaper, Greensburg, Kentucky, complete run, 1991-1994
7. Newspaper clippings about Hixson: 1939--as state organizer and a national vice-president of the Worker's Alliance, arrested for violating a city ordinance; 1945--as a member of the 43rd Ordinance Heavy Maintenance Company, returning to the US for transfer to the Pacific
8. Statistical tables and graphs of various dates, most of which were never used in Hixson's published works, not dated
9. Writings by Hixson, none of which has been published: " The American Way of Debt," "The US Economy Since 1960," " Everything You Never Wanted to Know About Inflation," and "The Aftermath of the Great Depression," all written prior to April 1983
10. More writings by Hixson: "National Income and Its Distribution," "Calculating the Annual Rate of Inflation," "On the Relationship between the Secular Trend of Inflation and 'Borrowing in Excess of Savings,'" "The Mixed Up Economy," and "Keynesianism," all written prior to 1983
11. New Perspectives on the Crisis of the Economy by William F. Hixson, Greensburg, Kentucky, 1983; It's Your Money by William F. Hixson, Comer Publications, Toronto, Ontario, 1997