

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

J. O. Hunt Collection

Hunt, J. O. Records, 1853–1903. 7 items.

Physician. An account book (1898–1903); a notebook (1876) of medicinal recipes and accounts; and matriculation and lecture tickets (1853) from the Medical College of Georgia, all belonging to Hunt or relating to Hunt's medical practice in Wallis, Indian Territory.

Item:

1. Registry receipts of registered mail from the post office at Shay, Indian Territory, September 20, 1902.
2. Account of William (?) Dodd from July 8, 1901 to August 6, 1902.
3. Small notebook containing prescriptions for various ailments and patient accounts, 1876.
4. Leather-bound notebook containing patient accounts, 1899-1903. Dr. Hunt was practicing in Willis, Indian Territory during this time.
5. Two tickets for lectures at the Medical College of Georgia. One lecture was on Institutes and Practice, given by Lewis D. Ford; the other was on Anatomy and given by George M. Newton. Also, one matriculation ticket for Dr. Hunt, signed by George M. Newton, Dean of the Medical College of Georgia, November 1853.