In 1964, he was personal assistant to Richard M. Nixon in New York City, and from 1966-1969 he worked in Washington D.C. with various members of the House and Senate including stints as Special Assistant to Senator Charles Percy, Legislative Assistant to Congressman Donald R. Jones, as General Counsel of the ACLU in Oklahoma, screened requests for assistance, actively represented the ACLU in lawsuits, and served as the legal counsel to the board.

Boxes 9 - 31 concern Jones' unsuccessful campaigns for Oklahoma State Attorney General in 1974, and for U.S. Congress in 1976 and again in 1980; Jones' participation in the investigations of the Oklahoma Corporation Commission (1990-1993), and the Penn Square Bank (1982-1984); and Jones' representation as legal counsel to Roger Dale Stafford in the Lorenz and Sirloin Stockade murders case.
