Biographical Note:

Sports publicist and children's literature author Harold Verne Keith was born April 8, 1903 in Lambert, Oklahoma Territory, to Malcolm Arrowwood and Arlyn Kee Keith. Harold Keith wed Virginia Livingston on August 20, 1931, and had two children, John Livingston and Kathleen Ann. Keith attended Northwestern State Teachers College, and received his B.A. in history from the University of Oklahoma in 1929. He received his M.A. in history from the University of Oklahoma in 1938.

Keith worked as a seventh-grade teacher for Amorita, Oklahoma Consolidated School System, 1922-23; as an assistant to grain buyer at Red Star Milling Company, 1929-30; and as sports publicity director at the University of Oklahoma, 1930-1969. Notable among his many awards for sports information work is his receipt of the 1950 Helms Foundation Sports Publicist of the Year award.

In addition to a successful career in sports publicity, Keith also wrote numerous popular short stories and books for children, including Boys' Life of Will Rogers (1936), Rifles for Watie (1957), Komantcia (1965), The Runt of Rogers School (1971), Brief Garland (1971), and many others. Keith was the recipient of the 1958 Newbery Medal for Rifles for Watie.

Keith's avocational interests included track running and barbershop quartet singing. Keith was also active in the Norman Kiwanis Club, the College Sports Information Directors of America, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Extent: 20 c.f.

Dates: 1900-1993 (Bulk: 1922-1986)

Scope and Content: This collection is comprised of professional correspondence (1928-1992), personal correspondence (1922-1987), personal records (1903-1987), subject files (1901-1984), Typescripts and manuscripts by Harold Keith (1938-1986), publications (1928-1987), financial records (1930-1993), and other related materials from the life and career of Harold Keith.

- Record Group I: Professional Correspondence, 1928-1992. This record group contains professional correspondence to and from Harold Keith during his college years, during his tenure as Sports Information Director at the University of Oklahoma, and in regards to his authorship of many popular works of children's literature.
- Record Group II: Personal Correspondence, 1922-1987. This record group contains personal correspondence to and from Harold Keith with family and friends regarding Keith's career and family matters.
- Record Group III: Personal Records, 1903-1987. This record group is comprised of legal documents, correspondence, mementoes, notes, printed material, and news clippings regarding Harold Keith's high school and college years, his participation in track and other sporting events, and family affairs.
- Record Group IV: Subject Files, 1900-1984. This record group comprises the bulk of the collection, and includes compiled research materials, news clippings, printed material, correspondence, and extensive notes on specific subjects related to stories and books Keith authored. The majority of subject files are grouped by the title of the published work for which they were compiled; others not obviously associated with specific published works are filed toward the end of the record group.
