

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Heinrich Kliewer Collection

Kliewer, Heinrich. Papers, 1892–1898. .10 foot.

Government employee. Work reports (1892–1898) filed by Kliewer, a farmer employed by the Cheyenne-Arapaho Indian Agency, Darlington, Oklahoma Territory, to assist Indians in their agricultural activities. The reports include number of days worked, the number of Indians assisted, acres plowed, rods of fencing built or repaired, acres planted, houses improved or repaired, and the general condition of the Indians' stock and crops.