

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Anna Lee Brosius Korn Collection

Korn, Anna Lee Brosius (b. ca. 1870). Papers, 1927–1955. .10 foot.

Club woman. A typescript of a lecture (n.d.) entitled "Progress and Development of Missouri Since 1860 from Gleanings Here and There," for presentation to the Missouri division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; a yearbook (1927) published by the National Society, United States Daughters of 1812 of Oklahoma; and programs and clippings (1930–1955) concerning Korn and her club activities.

Box K-2

Folder:

1. 1927 Year Book, National Society -- United States Daughters of 1812.
"A lecture prepared by Mrs. Anna B. Korn for presentation to the Missouri Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy for teaching illustrated history in the schools of Missouri..." 14 pages.
2. Harlow's Weekly, April 23, 1938.
Miscellaneous newspaper articles on Korn and others.
Obituary and poem for Judge Thomas H. Doyle, by A.B. Korn.
Short biographical sketch of Anne Mary Bentley, pianist, 1937.
3. Programs for various events; banquets, recitals, etc.
Color photo of Chief Lookout, Osage.
"The Dawn" November 16, 1907. An editorial from the Muskogee Phoenix, by Col. Clarence B. Douglas.
"The Cross Roads", a poem by Anna B. Korn.