

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Dr. Jesse Samuel Little Collection

Little, Jesse Samuel. Papers, 1900–1930. .10 foot.

Physician. Ledgers (1904); daybooks (1904–1908, 1930); and lecture notes, matriculation tickets, and lecture schedules (1900–1902) from Fort Worth University, all belonging to Little, who practiced medicine in Minco, Oklahoma.

Box L-4

Lecture notebooks:

Everts Convention Notebook of the Dallas Southern Clinical Society, Dallas, Texas.

“Diseases of Children,” Drs. Von Radr, Rost, and Killmer. New York City, New York.

Daybooks/Ledgers:

1904-1908, 1930.

Miscellaneous:

Newspaper clipping: list of Faculty and Graduates of the Memphis Hospital Medical College, April 1903(?), from a Memphis newspaper.

University of Tennessee Medical Department course cards/tickets, 1899-1900.

Fort Worth University Medical Department: correspondence (1902); schedules of lectures, 1901-1902 sessions; receipts for tuition payments; certificate of attendance; certificate of eligibility to matriculate.

Kansas City Medical College: statement of account; attended 1900-1901 session; schedule of lectures, 1900-01.

Memphis Hospital Medical College: 1902-03 session, program of lectures; course admission tickets; brochure about the college.