

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Dr. Lewis J. Moorman Collection

Moorman, Lewis Jefferson (1875–1954). Papers, 1909–1953. 1 foot.

Physician. Typescripts of oral history interviews (1936–1937) conducted during the Indian-Pioneer Oral History Project; correspondence (1924–1953) concerning real estate transactions, Moorman's research on tuberculosis and Indian health, and other aspects of his medical career, including connections with the University of Oklahoma School of Medicine; and a stock certificate (1909) from Epworth College of Medicine in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

---

Minor Box M-65

Indian Pioneer Papers, copies of interviews with subject, 1937-1938.

Folder:

1. A – B
2. C – E
3. F – G
4. H – J
5. Duplicates (incomplete) A – D
6. Duplicates (incomplete) E - J

Box M-66

Indian Pioneer Papers. Copies of interviews with subjects, 1937-1938. Interviews concern the topics of herbs, medicines, and doctoring.

Folder:

1. A – B
2. C – E
3. F - J

Correspondence and Printed Materials

4. Correspondence with governmental authorities, 1925-1954.
5. Correspondence with federal and state governments, 1938- 1950.

6. Miscellaneous correspondence regarding Oklahoma State Medical Association, and Fidelity National Bank, 1921- 1953.
7. Miscellaneous correspondence regarding Will Rogers, and Indian medicine, 1923-1954.
8. Contract to cultivate right-of-way, Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe Railroad, 1939.
9. Magazine and newspaper articles regarding the history of medicine in Oklahoma, various dates.

Box M-67

Folder:

1. Correspondence. University of Oklahoma School of Medicine regarding Moorman's activities as Prof. of Clinical Medicine, and with the Oklahoma State Medical Association, 1920-1954.
2. Correspondence. University of Oklahoma Press regarding Moorman's activities as Editor-in-Chief of the Oklahoma State Medical Association, and his books and articles, 1938-1954.
3. Correspondence. University of Oklahoma Student Health Service, 1940-42.
4. Correspondence. University of Oklahoma, general, 1925-54.
5. Correspondence. Moorman Sanatorium for the Treatment of Tuberculosis, 1929-40.
6. Biographical and autobiographical materials on Lewis Moorman, 1931-49.
7. Publications and writings of Lewis Moorman. "Health of the Navajo-Hopi Indians", "Socialized Medicine", and "Medicine on the Santa Fe Trail."
8. Governmental and private letters concerning the transferal of the Indian Health Service to the U.S.H.S., and of the Congressional Bill concerning this. 1948-1952.
9. Federal and state government reports concerning the Indian's status, 1938-51.
10. U.S. Department of Agriculture report, "Some Literature which Contains Information on Plants Used for Medicinal Purposes by Indians." 1938.
11. Statistics, governmental and private, which concerns the health of Indians, 1925, 1949.
12. Correspondence concerning World War II. 1940-1942.

13. Health and medicinal conditions of the Navajo-Hopi Indians, 1948-49.
14. Material concerning National Tuberculosis Society, 1935-51.
15. Indian Tuberculosis data. 1949-1951.
16. Indian health, general. 1949-1952.

Box M-77 Correspondence and Printed Materials

Folder:

1. Miscellaneous. Includes Hotel El Rancho menu, Art in Medical History, Gillilan, Finnigan & Co., Hospital Record Manual, obituaries, poems by Kenneth Kaufman and Lewis Moorman, etc.
2. Sequoyah and Sequoyah's home. News clippings. 1936.
3. Navajo and Indian health material. Printed materials regarding Indian health matters, and governmental policy concerning Indian health. 1947-53.
4. Tuberculosis and Indian material. Printed materials including "Tuberculosis on the Navajo Reservation" by Lewis Moorman. 1936-53.
5. News clippings regarding Medicine, Indians, Lewis Moorman, etc. various dates.
6. American Medical Association. Includes reports, memoranda, and correspondence, 1946-54.
7. Private organizational reports regarding the Oklahoma County Health Association, Oklahoma Memorial Association, and the State Industrial Commission.

Box M-80 Diaries

Diaries (8) kept by Dr. Lewis Moorman. Entries include day-to-day activities and happenings, as well as notes on historical subjects of interest to Moorman. 1932-1939.

Box M-81 Diaries

Diaries (7) kept by Dr. Lewis Moorman. Entries include day-to-day activities and happenings, as well as notes on historical subjects of interest to Moorman. 1940-1944.

Box M-82 Diaries and Address Books

Diaries (9) kept by Dr. Lewis Moorman. Entries include day-to-day activities and happenings, as well as notes on historical subjects of interest to Moorman. 1945-1953.
Address Books (2). (no date)

Box M-83 Bible

The Self-Pronouncing S.S. Teachers' Combination Bible, red letter art edition. 1902.