

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Herbert Moulton Collection

Moulton, Herbert. Printed materials, 1898–1934. 13 items.

Physician. Reprints (1898–1934) of articles by Herbert Moulton, an eye, ear, and nose specialist in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Box M-20

This collection consists of reprints by Moulton.

The Surgical Treatment of Glaucoma

The Significance of Angiosclerosis of the Retinal Blood Vessels

The Treatment of Methyl Alcohol Blindness

A Large Cyst of the Epiglottis

Chairman's Address -- given before the section on the Disease of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat of the Medical Association of the Southwest at Hot Springs, Arkansas, 1922

Some Notes of the Visual Disturbances due to diseases of the Nasal Accessory Cavities

Vertigo as a Symptom

Traumatic Laceration of the Inferior Rectus Muscle

Sarcoma of the Choroid

Experiences in Cataract Extraction

Calcareous Degeneration of Corneal Cicatrices

Demoid Cyst of the Orbit

Journal of the Arkansas Medical Society (April 1934)