

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

J. G. Noble Collection

Noble, Joseph Glass. Printed materials, 1919–1952. .10 foot.

Physician. Noble's commissions as a captain (1919) and a major (1930) in the U.S. Army Medical Corps; a paper (1931) by Noble, entitled "Examination of the Chest"; and advertisements (1940–1952) for medical products.

Box N-7

Folder :

- 1 Examination of the Chest - by J. G. Noble.
- 2 Miscellaneous (includes 2 letters: Medical Alumni Association to J. G. Noble and Kahlenberg Laboratories to J. G. Noble; also some clippings).
- 3 Presidential Citations (one for being a captain in the Medical Corps and the other for being a major in the Medical Corps).
- 4 Medical Publications
 - Therapeutic Review* - September 1944
 - Modern Medicine* - April 1941
 - University of Maryland School of Medicine Catalogue and Announcements* - September 1951
 - Research in the Service of Medicine* (Gastric Ulcer) - volume 12
 - The Onset of Cataract* (leaflet)
 - Official Membership Roster Tulsa County Medical Society
 - Ante-Colic Anastomosis in Subtotal Gastric Resection* - by Andre B. Carney
 - Cortone Acetate* (leaflet)
 - Ted Warkentin's News Letter* (concerned with the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation)
 - Manola* (leaflet)
 - 1952 Catalog of Medical Books*
 - Tuberculosis Abstracts* - February 1952, June 1952, July 1952)
 - Hypertension Pathogenesis* (leaflet)
 - Sharp and Dohme Seminar* - November 1940, November 1945, February 1946
 - Anatomical Chart of the Principal Parts of the Circulatory System
 - Blue Print for Health* - Fall 1951
 - Medical Progress* - Fall 1951
 - Rheumatic Disorders of the Aging* - by William K. Ishmael