

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

A. I. Ortenburger Collection

Ortenburger, Arthur Irving (b. 1898). Papers, 1892–1943. .25 foot.

Zoologist. Consumer rationing books (1943) issued during World War II to the Ortenburger family; and journals (1892–1898) maintained by Charles C. Dean, Ortenburger's father-in-law, of visits to Florida, Mexico, and Guatemala, for zoological research and vacations. Also included in this collection is a letter (1921) from Raymond L. Ditmars, whom Ortenburger considered one of the better herpetologists of his day.

Box O-9:

Diary of trip to Mexico in 1898.

Diary of trip to Florida in 1892.

Folder of miscellaneous items, including World War II ration books, various mementos from Mexico, and a letter (1921) from herpetologist Raymond L. Ditmars.

See also: Poster Collection