The Scroll of Phi Delta Theta, Vol. 71 No. 3, January 1947. Includes an article on the establishment of the 107th chapter of Phi Delta Theta, the Oklahoma Beta, at Oklahoma A&M College in Stillwater on December 11, 1946.

Photocopy of a booklet with a brief history of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, the Oklahoma Alpha chapter of Phi Delta Theta at the University of Oklahoma, and Phi Delta Theta in Enid, with special emphasis on members from Enid that were killed in action during World War I and World War II. The inscription on the cover reads "For the Library of Cecil Munn from Bertie Bass and Henry B. Bass." A letter in the front cover of the booklet from Cecil Munn to Earl Stone apologizes for the delay in sending him the book and references an enclosed newspaper article, titled "Bob Bass is Killed on Belgian Front," as being the cause of the delay. The letter is dated October 30, 1976.
