

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Samuel Price Ross Collection

Ross, Samuel Price (b. 1862). Papers, 1867–1936. .33 foot.

Physician. Ledgers (1912–1922) in which Ross recorded patients attended and fees charged; certificates and diplomas (1889–1922) awarded Ross by medical schools, brotherhoods, and the medical board of the Choctaw Nation; and a typescript (1867–1936) of an account by Mrs. Ross of her experiences as the wife of a physician in Indian Territory, describing with detail the social conditions of the area, the state and practice of medicine there, and the lives and customs of its inhabitants.

---

Folders:

1. Clipping from the Nichols Hills News, “Interesting People of Nichols Hills,” dated Dec. 25, 1952, that describes Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Price Ross, including an 1886 photo of them.
2. Handwritten notes on four index cards regarding science’s neglect of the study of olfaction, n.d.
3. Chapters 1 – 7 of typescript memoirs, “Retrospection of a Pioneer Doctor’s Wife,” by Maude Barnes Ross.
4. Chapters 8 – 14 of typescript memoirs, “Retrospection of a Pioneer Doctor’s Wife,” by Maude Barnes Ross.
5. Chapters 15 – 18 of typescript memoirs, “Retrospection of a Pioneer Doctor’s Wife,” by Maude Barnes Ross.
6. Chapters 19 – 22 of typescript memoirs, “Retrospection of a Pioneer Doctor’s Wife,” by Maude Barnes Ross.
7. Physician’s Certificate of the Choctaw Nation. S. P. Ross of Caney. 1899. Signed by Green McCurtain, principal chief of the Choctaw Nation.
8. Ledger of Dr. Samuel Price Ross’s patient accounting records.
9. Ledger of Dr. Samuel Price Ross’s patient accounting records.
10. Ledger of Dr. Samuel Price Ross’s patient accounting records.

Certificates and Diplomas Collection

Ross, S. P.

1. Diploma of S. P. Ross, University of Dallas, Medical Department, 1902.

2. Mason's degree of S.P. Ross, 1905.
3. Mason's certificate of S.P. Ross, 1905.
4. Certificate of membership to the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, 1922.