

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Franklin Campbell Smith Collection

Smith, Franklin Campbell (b. 1874). Papers, 1836–1946. .33 foot.

Minister. A typescript of Smith's autobiography (1874-1946) which relates his experiences in Oklahoma Territory, and the origins of Oklahoma place names, as well as stories concerning religion, settlers, cowboys, marshals, weather, opinions about the Spanish-American War, and the Crazy Snake Rebellion in Indian Territory. The collection also includes a typescript of Smith's biography (1836-1877) of Maj. James Patrick, C.S.A., who held important commands in the southwest during the Civil War.