Stamp Collection

Stamp Collection. Postage stamps, 1993–2010. .05 foot.

Subject collection. Commemorative stamps issued by the United States Postal Service, including "Legends of the West" (1993), "Cowboys of the Silver Screen" (2010), and a first day cover for the Oklahoma centennial stamp (2007).

Items:

1. A recalled sheet of "Legends of the West" postage stamps (1993) from the U.S. Postal Service. These stamps were recalled due to the inclusion of an incorrect photograph of cowboy Bill Pickett. This sheet includes the erroneous photograph.
2. A pane of 20 commemorative postage stamps "Cowboys of the Silver Screen" (2010) from the U.S. Postal Service. Features portraits of four western film stars: Roy Rogers, Tom Mix, William S. Hart, and Gene Autry.
3. First day cover for Oklahoma centennial stamp, 2007. Stamp features a Mike Larsen painting of morning sunlight on the Cimarron River, and the words, "Oh, what a beautiful mornin' ..." a line from the musical Oklahoma, by Rodgers and Hammerstein.
