

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

John G. Sullivan Collection

Sullivan, John G. Papers, 1999. 0.01 ft.

Lawyer. John G. Sullivan was a World War II veteran who served in the Army 698th Petroleum Engineers constructing a pipeline near Cherbourg, France. He graduated from the University of Oklahoma Law School in 1950 and worked as an insurance agent. This collection contains a certificate and letter acknowledging his participation in the 45th Annual National Security Seminar in 1999.

1. Certificate of participate of John G. Sullivan in the 45th Annual National Security Seminar from the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania, June 7-11, 1999.
2. Personal letter regarding participation in National Security Seminar from Robert H. Scales, Jr., June 14, 1999.