University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Fred Tracy Collection

Tracy, Fred. Papers, 1889–1911. .10 foot.
Writer. Three manuscripts (n.d.) by Fred Tracy entitled “Acts of Violence in No Man’s Land,” “Reminiscences of No Man’s Land,” and “B. M. and E.,” all regarding the history of the Oklahoma panhandle region and the efforts to obtain railroad service in Beaver, Oklahoma.

_____

Manuscripts by Fred Tracy:
Folder:

1. "Acts of Violence" - A typed written account of acts of violence in No-Mans-Land. Towns include Beaver City, Gate City, Englewood, Neutral City and Blue Grass. ca. 1889.

2. "Reminiscences of No-Mans-Land" - A typed written record of Fred Tracy's experiences and recollections of his early day residence in No-Mans-Land. ca. 1885 to early 1900's.

3. "B.M. and E." - Recollections concerning the efforts of the town of Beaver, to obtain a railroad, and to save Beaver City, after all its early years history, from becoming an abandoned town. ca. 1911.