Presidential Papers: Paul Frederick Sharp, 1971-1978

Biographical Note:

Paul Frederick Sharp, born January 19, 1918, in Kirksville, Missouri, received a B.A. from Phillips University in Enid, OK in 1939 and a Ph.D. from the University of Minnesota in 1947. Between 1947 and 1957 Sharp was an instructor in history at Minnesota, Associate Professor at Iowa State, Professor of American history and Chairman of the Department of American Institutions at the University of Wisconsin. During this time as well, he received a Fulbright Award, Ford Faculty Fellowship, and a John Simon Guggenheim Fellowship.

Between 1957 and 1964 Sharp was President of Hiram College in Hiram, Ohio. In 1964 he became Chancellor for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he served until 1966. He served as President at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa between 1966 and 1971.

On August 16, 1971 Sharp became the ninth president of the University of Oklahoma, serving in that capacity until August 13, 1978. Sharp then returned to teaching.

He was married to Rose Anderson and had three children: William, Kathryn, and Paul. Paul F. Sharp passed away February 19, 2009, after a lengthy illness.
