

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Bert R. Utterback Collection

Utterback, Bert R. (1891–1926). Papers, 1895–1945. .10 foot.

Author. Short story manuscripts (n.d.) by Utterback, written around his reminiscences (1895–1945) of territorial and early statehood-era New Mexico, with descriptions of the roles cowboys, ranches, cattle, horses, and influenza epidemics played in the social fabric and progress of the region.

Box 1

Folder:

1. This is America
2. A Cowboy Goes Fishing
3. They Call Me Old Salt Now
4. The Black Range of New Mexico
5. Big Game of the Rockies
6. New Mexico Awaits You
7. The Top Horse of My Mount
8. Vacation Time on Greyhound
9. Where the Cattle Range Meets the Desert
10. I Host a Santa Fe Passenger Train
11. Typescripts