

University of Oklahoma Libraries
Western History Collections

Charles Ward Collection

Ward, Charles. Drawings, 1993–2001. 1 foot.

Artist. A collection of 13 original drawings (1993–2001) by artist Charles Ward depicting buildings on the University of Oklahoma Norman campus. These drawings were produced for the 2002 University of Oklahoma calendar, a copy of which is included. Drawings of the following buildings are in this collection: Carnegie Building, Oklahoma Memorial Union, Monnet Hall, Ellison Hall, Holmberg Hall, Felgar Hall, Boyd House before the renovation, Boyd House as seen in a Christmas card, the east window of the Great Reading Room in Bizzell Memorial Library, the doors to Evans Hall, the Class of 1917 Arch, the Fieldhouse, and Adams Hall.

Restriction: Patrons may view the Charles Ward Collection materials, but photocopies / digital scans / reproductions are not permitted. These materials are protected by copyright. All copy requests should be directed to Paul D. Massad, Senior Associate Vice President at the University of Oklahoma Office of Public Affairs, 405-325-3701.

---

In addition to the materials described above, the following photocopied drawings were added to the collection in 2009 drawings:

- 10 ¼" x 13 ¼" copy of a drawing of Price Hall, 2009, glued to foam core.
- 4" x 5" copy of a drawing of Monnet Hall, 1999, glued to paper.
- 4" x 5" copy of a drawing of Holmburg (sic) Hall, 1998, glued to paper [Holmberg].
- 4" x 5" copy of a drawing of Jacobson Hall, 1997, glued to paper.
- 4" x 5" copy of a drawing of Boyd House, 1996, glued to paper.
- 4" x 5" copy of a drawing of the south (original) entrance to Bizzell Memorial Library, 1996, glued to paper.
- 4" x 5" copy of a drawing of the Class of 1917 Arch, 1994, glued to paper.
- 4" x 5" copy of a drawing of the east window of the Great Reading Room, Bizzell Memorial Library, 1993, glued to paper.